

6th International SADS Foundation Conference: Preventing Unexpected Sudden Death in the Young

SADSCONNECT (AGES 9 -18 YEARS OLD)

Friday, October 12, 2012

- All Day Family Activity During the Day--- TBD
- 3:00-5:00pm Youth Meet and Greet- Genetic Counseling Students
Reveal Poster Contest Winner

Saturday, October 13, 2012

- 7:45-8:00am Welcome with regular Conference attendees, before breaking off to begin Youth Track
- 8:00-8:30 Introductions to people who did not meet on Friday
- 8:30-9:15 Tess Saarel, MD- How the Heart Works followed by Q and A
- 9:15-9:45 Lindsay Meyers, MSGC- Where did this come from? GC student activity
- 9:45-10:05 Break- snack
- 10:05-10:45 Robert Campbell- Athletics- knowing how much is too much
Q and A
- 10:45-11:15 Marty Tristani, MD- Your Beta Blocker
- 11:15-12:00 ?- How to tell your friends, teachers, and bus drivers about your condition
- 12:15-12:45pm Lunch
- 12:45-1:30pm Young Adult Panel
- 1:30-2:30 Off Site activity
- 2:30- 4:05 Sandy CPR/AED
- 4:05-4:30 Anne Maurer, MA, LPC- Prepare for speaking to conference "What I want to know about my condition"
- 4:30-4:45 Speak to general conference
- 4:45-5:30 Healing wall ceremony

Sunday, October 14, 2012

- 8:00 – 8:45am Breakfast
- 8:45 – 9:30 Mitchell Cohen? What is my condition going to be like as I grow up?
- 9:30- 10:15 Susan Etheridge and Michael Ackerman- Break-out groups and discussions led by experts.
- 10:15-10:30 Break
- 10:30-11:45 Join main conference to hear school panel
- 11:45-12:00 Return for goodbyes, comments

Supporting Families. Saving Lives.