

A Family Seminar, Presented by:
NYU Cardiovascular Genetics Program and the SADS Foundation

How Genetics, Technology and New Therapies are Reshaping Inherited Arrhythmias

Saturday, November 23rd, 2013

- |          |  |
|----------|--|
| 8:15 AM  | Registration and Breakfast   |
| 9:00 AM  | Welcome: Glenn Fishman, MD; Director, Division of CardiologyDr. Larry Chinitz, MD; Director, Heart Rhythm CenterAlice Lara, President, SADS foundation   |
| 9:15 AM  | “From Few Genes to Large Panels: How is Genetic Testing Changing?”Marina Cerrone; Senior Research Scientist, CardiovascularGenetics Program  |
| 9:45 AM  | “Technology for Inherited Arrhythmias: ILR, ICD and Subcutaneous ICD”Steven Fowler, MD; Assistant Professor of Medicine, Cardiovascular Genetics Programand Clinical Cardiac Electrophysiology |
| 10:15 AM | Coffee Break and Exhibits  |
| 10:45 AM | “The 2013 Guidelines for Management of Inherited Arrhythmias”Silvia Priori, MD, PhD; Director, Cardiovascular Genetics Program   |
| 11:45 AM | Question and Answer Session: Silvia Priori, MD, PhD; Marina Cerrone, MD;and Steven Fowler, MD  |
| 12:15 PM | Lunch and Patient Presentations  |
| 1:30 PM  | “The Mindful Heart: The Use of Meditation with Heart Rhythm Disorders”Jennifer Cory, MS, LCSW; Red Bank Psychotherapy Assoc.   |
| 2:00 PM  | Meet the Cardiovascular Genetics Team, Exhibits, CPR Certification Class*  |

*Advanced registration required